Library

The mission of the library is to support our students and faculty in their quest for information and recreational reading. Our goal is to create lifelong learners who are efficient, ethical and knowledgeable users of information.

Students are welcome to enter the library for quiet study or research whenever they have a free period.

Students may utilize the library computers for research, typing their assignments and personal e-mail.

Library Hours

Open 8:20 am - 2:40 pm

The library is subject to close for classes and testing.
